

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES TORONTO

PR-02-2015

PRESS RELEASE

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS SERVICE CHARGE (TERMINAL FEE) EFFECTIVE 01 FEBRUARY 2015

The Manila International Airport Authority (MIAA) has implemented the integration of the International Passenger Service Charge (IPSC), or better known as the terminal fee, into the airline ticket beginning 01 February 2015. Tickets purchased online or outside the Philippines starting this date already include the Php550.00 terminal fee.

OFWs may refund the terminal fee at Refund Counters at the airport and the following documents must be presented:

- Photocopy of passenger ticket or official receipt showing payment of terminal fee with the code "L1 (International)" [photocopy to be submitted at the Refund Center]
- Original OEC (airport copy) to be surrendered at the Refund Counter
- Boarding pass

For more information on IPSC implementation, please refer to MIAA's Memorandum Circular No. 08, s. 2014 (Implementing Guidelines for the IPSC into the Airline Ticket at Point of Sale at <http://www.gov.ph/2014/10/01/miaa-memorandum-circular-no-08-s-2014>).

For media inquiries, please contact Ms. Connie Bungag, MIAA-Chief of Media Division, at tel. no. +63.2.854.0015.
